

The History of

Sacramento Alumnae Chapter Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

2010-Present

The 2010-11 sorority year continued with members sponsoring and participating in events that support the sorority's objectives. The annual prayer brunch was held in December with the theme "Praising Him Through The Storm". The annual Crab Feed was a big success and a new event was introduced—"Casino Royale". Both events serve as fund raisers for the awarding of scholarships. The year's scholarship recipients were recognized at a scholarship awards luncheon entitled "School Spirit".

Arts and Letters was very active in 2011-12 kicking off the year with a Red Carpet event, a showing of 'The Help'. Other events during the year included the plays 'For Colored Guys' and 'What My Husband Doesn't Know'; a reception honoring author Synthia Saint James and other significant movies, 'Red Tails', a movie about the Tuskegee airmen, also 'Think Like a Man'.

The Scholarship committee hosted their first Interview Preparation Workshop in January and the annual Crab Feed and Casino Royale events were again held to support their scholarship awards. International Awareness and Involvement committee hosted an event "Pray the Devil Back to Hell" in conjunction with the Association and Friends of Liberia, Inc. The year ended with a banquet that recognized the hard work of the members.

The sorority year 2012-2013 was very busy for the Sacramento Alumnae chapter as Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. celebrated its Centennial Anniversary and the chapter continued to support their responsibilities in support of the sorority's Five-Point Programmatic Thrust. Centennial activities saw a large number of chapter members traveling to Pasadena, CA to attend the Centennial Kickoff events which featured the first Delta Sigma Theta float in the Rose Bowl Parade and a Hollywood Gala. Throughout the year many sorors also traveled to Washington DC to participate in Founders Day in January, Delta Days in March and ending with the much anticipated 51st National Convention in July.

The Social Action Committee led the chapter in voter registration activities and members also came out in support of the annual Black College Fair. The very popular Crab Feed and the Casino Royale continued to be successful fund raisers for scholarships. The proceeds enabled the chapter to provide scholarships to five very deserving students. The Healthy Lifestyles committee sponsored a very successful Hair

The History of

Sacramento Alumnae Chapter Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Forum in addition to other activities including pole dancing, Pilates and Afro Caribbean dancing. The committee's monthly newsletter continued to be recognized as a very popular publication.

Community Service kept members involved with projects including feeding the hungry, phone bank for March of Dimes, assisting with the Oak Park Christmas event, participating in March of dimes walk, Martin Luther King Jr. March and Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Race.

The end of year events included a High Tea and fashion show sponsored by the International Awareness and Involvement Committee and the End of Year banquet sponsored by the Membership Committee.